Professional Summary

My name is Iurii Basov. I am actively exploring opportunities for Data Architect, Tech Lead, and AI/Python engineering roles. I have 10+ years in IT, starting as a Java/Scala developer, then moving into ML and platform engineering, and later progressing to ML platform leadership at Sberbank. I work as a playing coach and full-stack data specialist, combining hands-on implementation with team mentorship and cross-functional delivery.

Core Technology Stack (Matched to Vacancy)

- Python
- Pytest
- Agentic AI Systems
- Multi-Agent Workflows
- LangChain
- LangGraph
- LLM Orchestration
- Prompt Engineering
- A2A Orchestration
- Git
- GitLab CI/CD
- Azure Cloud Services
- Kubernetes
- Cloud-Native Development
- Unit Testing
- Solution Design
- Java Spring Boot (nice to have)
- React (nice to have)
- Financial Data Handling (nice to have)

Relevant Experience

- Lead Software Engineer / ML Platform Lead — Sberbank (Apr 2020 - Mar 2025)

- Led platform initiatives for ML/data products and coordinated delivery across engineering stakeholders.
- Improved reliability and scalability of production services and mentored engineers as a hands-on leader.
- Software Developer / Lead MLOps & Data Engineer — Multi-domain Projects (Apr 2013 - Aug 2025)
 - Designed and delivered data-intensive solutions with real-time and batch pipelines across banking, logistics, and e-commerce domains.
 - Implemented Python-centric workflows, ML-enabled services, and cloud-native deployment patterns in production environments.

Working Style

- Playing coach: hands-on delivery + mentoring + ownership of outcomes.
- Strong communicator able to convert business goals into implementable technical solutions.
- Values team atmosphere, transparency, and pragmatic engineering decisions.

Education

Moscow State University — MS, Calculus Mathematics (2001 - 2006)
